Married Floyd Toy 07-17-56. Yes, 1956! I was secretly married my senior year. Divorced February 1971.

One daughter, Dianne Sills, and husband, Eddie.

Four grandchildren, Michael, Wendy, Codie, Amberly.

Twenty-two great-grandkids so far. This includes my grandkid's step children, as it should.

Worked as a bookkeeper, Robertson Shoe Store, was art counselor at Elida School. Bookkeeper for motels, doctor's office (Tucumcari), opened art gallery in Truth or Consequences, 1978 through 1985. Moved to Santa Barbara, CA. Bookkeeper and handled rental property for a law office 1986-1996.

Looking back over fifty years, I wouldn't make any major changes in my life. My experiences made me the person I am now. I don't think I turned out that bad! As to the future, I plan to finish my book, if I can figure out my new computer. I had 170,000 words (the equivalent of two average novels) on the old computer, which was transferred. Hope my son in law can figure out how to use what was transferred, or I type 850 pages or so all over again.
